

Legislative Proceedings.

privilege Proceedings.
 Jan. 21.—SENATE.—Mr. Triplett, on of arrival, denied the state-Louisville Evening Post concern-the charge of collusion with the After routine business the adjourned.
 The Callin-Rardin contest was up-ports submitted, the majority favor-the minority claiming no election that the matter should be referred county. Pending discussion the returned. A bill to incorporate the Catholic Mother of God's Cemetery of was passed by both houses.
 Jan. 23.—SENATE.—Several bills were passed. The orders of the en taken up by the clerk, and the d out was the petition to repeal the of Equalization. Senator Clay had made a motion Saturday, and and, possibly carried, to make said bill a for Wednesday, and then after it was reported didn't show that fact it was moved to correct the journal. Mr.
 Speaker rather vehement in his explana-Speaker Bryan got somewhat net-stormy scene. The result was that on to correct the journal was adopt-any further excitement. The adjourned.
 Met in session.
 Jan. 24.—SENATE.—Several bills tuted, after which a petition was fisting against the chartering of the Gas Company except under certain A bill was reported granting con-in Campbell County to the United military post. Also a bill to pro-formally cheaper text-books for the schools.
 Amendments to several acts, princially which was to reform the public of the State; an act to incorporate the District Telegraph Company; 18 the Kentucky branch of the United in an act to authorize the issue of bonds court-house, in Casey County. The favored the seating of Callin in the of the canal and pending discussion adjourned.
 Jan. 25.—SENATE.—A number were introduced incorporating differences. The bill to abolish the Board of Education was passed. Adjourned.
 The Rardin Callin contested election was taken up and the majority report was adopted. It was voted in the order providing for the creation of of the House was taken up and was made order for February 21. Adjourned.
 Jan. 26.—SENATE.—The Senate adopted a number of amendments to bills, among them one providing national State guards for Pike County. A was then passed providing that the met at 10:30 and adjourned at 1 o'clock. except Monday to meet at 3 and adon that day. Senate then adjourned.
 Resolutions offered: Providing for of $100 for the celebration of the centennial of the completion of the Commonwealth on February 16, 1888; a committee to investigate the prac-of repealing so much of Chapter 25, Statutes, as empowers the Sinking Commissioners to loan money to the of persons of prison labor based account plan. House Bill 173, pro-punishment of from two to twenty for abortion, or for procuring an abortion, was taken up and after a considerable debate, and nearly every of the House offered an amendment, it finally ordered down and the bill originally offered.
 Jan. 27.—SENATE.—The Protective bill carried, the Republicans against it. Several railroad bills reand leave asked to offer others. by Senator Hays. The salary system and salary and perquisites received last he State officials. at the close of the call of counties in use this morning for bills the clerk's of the House, that no meeting has been intro-in session. The Senate bill providing using the number of State troops was up, and after several dilatory motions was reached and the bill was passed. and the fact that Governor Buck-recommended it in order that the good of Pike County might be protected. A reconsider was offered, and the whole was reconsidered, and some personal re-messrs. Mulligan and Needham.
 News Items.
 MEDIMM, the celebrated trotting owned by General Withers, of on, died the other morning of spilitigitis. He was valued at $25,000.
 The other night the house of Mr. Jesso in Nelson County, burned to the Beckley Brown and his family took in the finished in the flames.
 HUBER, a farmer near Maysville, a horse-thief, shot and captured at his home and kept him till day-when he was taken to the Maysville Jail.
 Woods, widow, of Maysville, has H. Poe, a married man, of Man-O., for breach of promise, placing at $5,000.
 K. WOODRUFF, of Eminence, has appointed storekeeper and gauger by Commissioner of Internal Revenue. at GRAYSON was appointed the probroary at Maysville. at prisoners in the Vanceburg jail their escape by prying off the iron and making a hole in the roof of the jail.
 Governor of Kentucky ordered the of the Secretary of Mr. Simpson and the General closed on the 20th as a of respect to General John W. Fin-JOHN MURPHY found a torpedo on road track at Ashland, struck it ax and lost an ear, but escaped with life.
 Court of Appeals of Kentucky has the Newport fire and police bill to constitutional.
 JOHN J. ORR, of Owen County, been appointed Receiver of Public at Buffalo, W. Va., the new postmaster of N. C. Cassady, of the new postmaster of Martin County. of Owen County has been established at Allen County, with Z. T. Glover as auditor; also one at Gray, Knox Co., Calvin C. Gray, postmaster.
 Four-year-old child of Mr. Thomas J.
 N. C. Halifax, in Owen County, while playing before the fire, in some manner led her dress to the blaze. In a moment she was enveloped in flames. The ig was torn from her by a sister, but the little one was so badly burned that she died.
 GENERAL JOHN W. FINNELL, late of Ken-died at Helena, Mon. He was a national Republican politician and jourand Collector of Internal Revenue of the Sixth Kentucky District under General Garfield.
 Franklin, James Lovell walked near the brink of a cliff, and fell, and was killed. He was 60 years of age, and at the bottom of the precipice, nearly 100 feet high. His injuries are very severe.
 Hazel Green Herald has one sugger whorlides twenty miles over westerly of his paper.

